4) DETAIL OF DIFFERENT CADRES OF PUNJAB POLICE

As per provisions contained in Punjab Police Act, 2007, the Punjab Police is bifurcated in different cadres and transfer from one cadre to another cadre is not allowed. As per section 4 (b) of Punjab Police Act - 2007, the candidates finally selected as a result of the present recruitment process shall not be entitled for any transfers out of the Cadre to which they are allotted.

While submitting the Common Application Form (CAF) on web-portal www.punjabpolice recruitment.in. The female candidates can apply only for District Police Cadre as the vacancies for female candidates pertain to District Police Cadre only. The male candidates will be asked to give his preference order for the cadre mentioned below:-

- | | |
|--------------------------|------------------|
| i) District Police Cadre | iv) IT&T |
| ii) Armed Police Cadre | v) PPA, Phillaur |
| iii) Intelligence Cadre | |

Note:

Allocation of the cadre to the male candidates will be made on the basis of the option given by the candidate, vacancies available in the concerned sports discipline and his Merit Position in the State wide Combined Merit List, which would be derived from marks obtained by him in Sports Trials and sports achievements (certificates).

5) INTER-SE SENIORITY

The Recruitment, under the present Standing Order, is being done for the recruitment of constables pertaining to vacancies of the 3% Sports quota of the vacancies that have already been notified vide different Advertisements published in 2016 for open Recruitment in various cadres of Punjab Police. The Standing Orders issued for each Recruitment process specifically mention that recruitment for 3% Sports quota vacancies will be done subsequently by a specially constituted Board for this purpose. Since the vacancies are a part of the originally advertised vacancies, the candidates selected through this Standing Order shall be part of the same batch, which has been recruited through the Standing Order pertaining to that cadre, regarding which vacancies were notified vide respective advertisements, the details of which are given as under:

S. No.	Standing Order number	Cadre	Total number of vacancies	Sports quota vacancies
1	1 of 2016	District Police Cadre & Armed Police Cadre (both male as well as female)	7416	Male - 110 (D) + 77 (A) = 187 Female - 36
2	4 of 2016	IT & T	400	12
3	7 of 2016	Intelligence	725	22
4	8 of 2016	PPA Phillaur	75	2

6	11 of 2016	SPU	200	6
7	12 of 2016	District Police (Driver)	750	23

The total marks obtained by the candidate in the Recruitment Test will be the aggregate of the marks of Sports Trials and their achievements in Sports. To ensure parity with the candidates being selected in the Recruitment Test of Constables in various cadres, other than 3% Sports quota, in the same Batch, the total marks obtained by the candidates in the present Recruitment Test shall be normalized (i.e. will be calculated by unitary method) out of a maximum 30 marks (to ensure parity with the total marks in the Recruitment Test of Constables in other cadres).

The inter-se seniority of the candidates selected in the present recruitment shall be based on the normalized total of the marks obtained in the Recruitment Test out of 30 marks as above, and on this basis, the names of these selected candidates shall be entered in the Central Seniority List of Constables of the Cadre concerned separately, which is maintained in the office of the Director General of Police, Punjab. The inter-se seniority of the entire batch of a Cadre shall be drawn together, i.e. comprising of the candidates selected earlier in the general recruitment to that cadre as well the Sports category candidates selected from the forthcoming connected recruitment process.

It is pertinent to mention here that as per the Punjab Police Act 2007, each Cadre comprises of both male as well as female constables. Therefore, the inter-se seniority of the male as well as female constables of a particular cadre shall be prepared in a combined manner.
